

Why do some of the NCSCCT training courses not have an associated assessment?

Two of our courses, 'Vaping: a guide for healthcare professionals' and 'Stop smoking aids', do not have assessments associated with them. This is due to the evolving nature of these two areas of the field.

Note: Assessment availability is dependent upon region. If you are accessing our training outside of England, certain other assessments may not be available to you.